

A TALE OF HORROR.

An Old Miser Cuts a Child's Tongue Out and His Fingers Off—The Monster Shot Dead in His Tracks.

Last week's Saginaw Republic says:

It has been known for some time that a dirty, wretched old man lived outside the city, about a mile or so, in a filthy little cabin, entirely alone, and that he was a hermit. No one ever went near him, for it was said he was a magician. His only companion was a skeleton-looking dog. He came into the city sometimes to beg, and would piteously implore for money, stating that he was starving. Sometimes he would gather rags or scraps of paper and sell them. Every one supposed him to be wretchedly poor. He had an evil look, and mothers would remove their children when they saw him coming. One day last week, however, a child, the son of Mr. Abraham Skinner, went out alone to fish in the stream, and happened to wander on until before he knew it, he came to the hovel of the old man. At first he was frightened, but seeing no one around he plucked up courage and went nearer. Everything was silent. He went and peeped through a crack in the side of the hut. He almost screamed at what he saw, for he beheld the old man bending over a bag of money that he was counting. There were other bags beside him containing large quantities of money. Mr. Skinner's son was so terrified that, when he attempted to move he stumbled. Like lightning the old man rushed out and seized him. "Ha," he screamed, "I've caught you, have I? You saw me, did you? Well, now you'll pay for it." And before Mr. Skinner's son could say a word, the old monster, with an awful laugh, drew out a knife, and (oh horror!) cut the child's tongue out. Then he chopped off his fingers. "Now," he said, "now you can go for you can't tell." The poor boy ran off overcome with agony, and ran to his father's house only to find him with consternation. What was the matter with their child? He could not speak to tell them! He could not write for his fingers were cut. Still the poor boy, after efforts of the most horrible pain, managed to fix a pencil between his bloody stumps of fingers and wrote the awful tale! A party was immediately organized and hastened to the miser's den. He was at the door as they approached, and fired a revolver six times at them, wounding two of the party seriously. Mr. Skinner returned the fire, and the aged villain fell, with a piercing yell, mortally wounded. "My money!" he moaned, "my beautiful money!" and he crawled to his bags of gold and sank upon them—corpsel! Over $10,000 was discovered, which was presented to the poor house and other charitable institutions. The event will never be forgotten by our citizens. The child is slowly recovering. The miser was buried the day after and the hut was torn down.

State Sunday-School Convention.

The State Sunday-school convention will be held in the city of Nashville, commencing on the 2d of November next, at 10 o'clock A. M. Delegates are invited and expected from all the Sunday-schools of all denominations in the State.

Such an assembly of the Sunday-school workers of the State will be an interesting session, and must and will result in great good. Men of eloquence and distinction are also expected from abroad, whose presence will add to the interest of the convention.

The Executive Committee are making arrangements to make the occasion pleasant, profitable and instructive to all who may attend, and extend a cordial invitation to all Sunday-schools to send delegates.

Arrangements have been made by the Reception Committee for the entertainment of all delegates during the sitting of the convention, and each delegate will be passed over the different railroads for one fare, upon presenting his credentials at the railroad ticket office at home. Delegates, upon their arrival, will please report to the Reception Committee, at the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church, corner Sumner and Church Streets.

All newspapers friendly to the cause are requested to give this an insertion.

By order of the Executive Committee,
W. H. FORSMAN, Chairman.

THE RESIGNATION OF SECRETARY COX.

We believe the country will receive with regret the announcement of the resignation of the Hon. J. D. Cox, Secretary of the Interior. It is said by the Washington correspondent of the New York Times that "the reasons for the withdrawal are understood to be entirely personal, and the relations of the President and Secretary have been and still are of the most agreeable character."

Gov. Cox accepted the position at the urgent request of the President, and at a great personal sacrifice. In discharging the duties of the position, he has ever been governed by principle, and in all cases has acted solely to further the important trusts confided to him. He has always enjoyed the confidence of the President, and been an universally recognized as one of the safe and wise of his advisers. The Interior Department has for years been the objective point for the operations of the Indian Ring, notoriously one of the most formidable and corrupt ever infesting any department in the Union. She has ment of the National Administration never faltered nor never lagged behind in the Ring has met in Gen. Cox a most able and rapid strides made by the Republican administration, uncompromising enemy, and party towards prosperity and good government found themselves completely baffled. She has always been with the van.

We believe the President and the people appreciate these proofs of integrity and ability, and will feel his retirement to be a grievous loss to the public as well as a personal one to the service.

A Reply by CARLYLE.—The curious and "troublesome" style of Carlyle is said to be quite in contrast with his simplicity of straightforward way of talking. Hatred and shame is one of his notable characteristics. One evening, at a small literary gathering, a lady, famous for her "muslin theology," was bewailing the wickedness of the Jews in not receiving our Savior, and ended his diatribe by expressing regret that He had not appeared in our own time. "How delighted," said she, "we should all be to throw our doors open to Him, and listen to His divine precepts! Don't you think so, Mr. Carlyle?"

The sturdy philosopher, thus appealed to, said, in his broad Scotch, "No, madam, I don't. I think that had He come very fashionably dressed, with plenty of money, and preaching doctrines palatable to the higher orders, I might have had the honor of receiving from you a card of invitation, 'To meet our Savior,' but if He had come uttering His sublime precepts, and denouncing the Pharisees, and associating with the Publicans and lower orders, as He did, you would have treated Him much as the Jews did, and have cried out, 'Take Him to Newgate and hang Him!'—Horner's Magazine for November.

An urchin being sent for five cents' worth of macabre snuff, forgot the name of the article, and asked for five cents' worth of make-a-boy snuff.

To try to get an honest man inside the ring is to attempt Sydney Smith's proposition to put a square man into a round hole.
